VILLA PUSHPAPURI

Fairy Tale Wedding at Villa Pushpapuri

September 23, 2015

The idea of getting married in Bali already paints a beautiful picture, but imagine this- the sounds of pounding surf, the views of the mystical Mount Agung and your bare feet in the warm shimmering black sand as you say “I do”. All that are just a few highlights of the stunning beachfront Villa Pushpapuri. It is approached through terraced rice fields, tobacco plantations, papaya and banana groves, beyond which the sea is framed within the villa’s entrance. And this is just the beginning. Dotted with towering coconut palms, which are perfect to fit the fairy tale lights, terraced garden to seat your guests or have a sunset cocktail reception and beautifully manicured lawns for that walk of your life. We know a picture speaks a thousand words, so have a look for yourself.

More info about the venue can be found HERE.
